

Vandals Hit Water System

By Robert E. Finneran
Editor

Vandals who have hit everything in town, seriously affected the town's water supply this past week, causing destruction to the Holt Hill water tank and taking actions which compelled shutting down the facility and cleaning it.

The three-million-gallon tank which serves the south section of the town had to be shut down after testing revealed that human waste deposited in the tank had polluted the storage facility, necessitating a lengthy, expensive cleaning process.

Public Works Director Robert E. McQuade reported the damage occurred sometime on the Fourth of July night. Vandals got to the tank located some distance in from Prospect Road, went up the 20 feet of the concrete tank and removed wire fencing which surrounds the top at an outward angle.

Using some sort of heavy tool such as a sledge hammer, they then smashed a metal hatch and an air vent which is anchored in the concrete top.

Water department crews went to the scene on July 5, and tested the water in the tank and found it to be polluted and immediately shut down the facility and began emptying its three-million-gallon contents.

Replacement of the vents at a cost of $2,000-$3,000 is being done and the tank being filled and chlorinated and cleaned, after which it will again be emptied before being refilled again, tested and placed back in service.

McQuade estimates that process will take at least another week before the tank can be used again for storage.

There is no danger to health, since the tank is a storage facility and has been removed from service to the distribution system and will not be restored until all cleaning and testing is completed.

But, the ultimate result of the vandalism is considerable waste — expense in assigning manpower to the cleaning and repair task, purchase of materials and loss of upwards of six-million gallons of water to put the tank back in service.

A Family Welcome

Maria Zubiaga (left) after her arrival Tuesday evening, paused for a group photo with the William Dalton family of Old South Lane, her hosts during a month-long visit to Andover. As part of an American Institute for Foreign Studies program, she and 38 other Spanish students will take a course in conversational English and tour Eastern Massachusetts and parts of New Hampshire. The group flew to New York Saturday from Madrid, and took a bus ride to Andover Tuesday. Bill Dalton's children are (left to right) Abby, Bill and Jack.

Five Seek School Seat

By Linda S. Corbett

A fifth school committeeman, to fill the seat vacated by Casimir Kolaski last month, will be chosen by the selectmen and four remaining schoolmen Thursday, Aug. 2.

Meeting briefly this week, the joint boards decided to interview all candidates for the slot on Tuesday, July 31. They'll invite finalists back for another go-around Aug. 2, and make their final decision.

They also set July 23 as the deadline for persons who may still be interested in the interim post.

Those who have tossed their names in so far include Richard E. Neal, 1 Twinbrook Cir., a middle school principal in Westford; Donald W. Robert, 3 Toby Lane, a former teacher and publisher of education materials; Joseph A. Baglio of 8 Forest Hills Drive, an investigator for GTE Labs; Edward Kaufman, 5 Miles Circle, a teacher in Woburn; and Stanley J. Wrobel, Jr., 8 Eastman Road, a chemist.

Other residents who would like to be considered for the spot may contact Town Clerk Elden R. Salter.

Tuesday night the dual boards informally agreed that they could approach members of the community whom they felt would meet their qualifications for the post, and consensus was that the new person need not promise that he or she wouldn't run for the seat next spring.

While an incumbent usually has the advantage in a town election, they said it could also work against him, particularly if the school committee makes some controversial decisions in the meantime.

Selectman Susan Poore noted that there had been a "gentleman's agreement" with former appointee that he wouldn't run for election, but that when it came right down to it, they couldn't legally keep a person from doing so.

Selectman Larry Sullivan asked if they in fact needed to fill the vacancy before

Notes From Riding The Recycling Truck

By Virginia Cole

Editor's Note: Mrs. Virginia Cole is president of the non-profit organization which recently took over the town's recycling program. In its first week of operation last week, the officers of the corporation rode the routes with the new contractor. Herewith some thoughts about the new program.

In the first place, everything is beautiful on a bright, sunny day in July in Andover at 7:30 a.m.

And if you are in the recycling business,

At Weekend

Linda J. Look, a local woman, returned "home" to her alma mater, Wheelock College in Boston, for the school's Alumni Weekend, June 8-10.

Ms. Look joined many Wheelock Alumni who attended seminars, staffed by Wheelock faculty, that celebrated the International Year of the Child. Topics included Child Abuse, Parents' and Children's Rights, "Back to Basics" and "Is Mainstreaming Working." Wheelock College specializes in preparing students for careers in working with young children.

it is thrilling to see all the paper on the curb waiting to be sold and re-used.

People and children wave. Some hurry out with their bags to be sure they are picked up. One lady sat on the sidewalk reading the papers in the bag until we came — then she parted with them reluctantly. The whole center of town is in favor of recycling — there was paper everywhere — almost every other house. What do the others do?

West Andover on the outside of Routes 495 and 93 doesn't care much for saving paper. How can we convince them? They pay the same taxes; the same high costs for energy; higher prices for articles made from virgin materials. Maybe they have a lot more money out there. Wish they'd help the rest of us who don't, anyway.

On the Thursday route there are pheasants to be seen. On Tuesday the truck broke down and then we read the to be recycled magazines. The guys on the truck preferred 'Playboy' — we had the feeling they wished we'd go home and leave them to enjoy.

The flowers were beautiful everywhere. The truck Driver said it looked like Lexington but we had a lot more paper than Lexington.

On Friday, Channel 4 sent a photographer and Sarah Ann Shaw to record our doings. We backed and turned and were photographed from every side. Channel 4 thought our program was newsworthy and there we were on the 6 o'clock news.

We talked about the glass pick up. We can't take cans anymore. No place to sell them. People will be annoyed. We're annoyed too but glass — bottles and jars — are wanted. We have to collect only what we can sell.

We waved at the rubbish truck when our paths crossed. Their job looked harder — they were just throwing away. We are saving. Hope you are too.

Building, Grounds Plan On Agenda

The school committee will be meeting briefly on July 31 to handle personnel matters, before their joint interview session with the selectmen regarding a replacement for Committeeman Casimir Kolaski. They should have new member on board for their next regular business session on Aug. 14.

One of the agenda items scheduled for that session is presentation of the long-range building and grounds report.

Vacations Hampering Schedules

Vacations or other commitments of members has forced cancellation of a few meetings of official boards this past week.

The School Building Committee, scheduled to meet last Thursday, rescheduled their session for Saturday morning, but that session, too, was dropped.

Monday night's scheduled conference session of the selectmen was cancelled, with the town manager in New York seeking an improved bond rating for the town and some members not being available.

Infrared Thermography Demonstration

Building Inspector William Meins has arranged a demonstration of infrared thermography, an energy conservation measure in industrial building, to be presented by Air Image Technology of Stowe on July 11, at 2 p.m. in the conference room of the Department of Community Development and Planning.

Diabetes Symptoms Detected

The Diabetic Screening clinic for Andover residents over sixty, held by the Andover Health Dept. in May, resulted in 7.14 per cent of those screened having a high blood sugar test result and a diagnosis of diabetes mellitus.

These statistics suggest there are other residents of Andover who may be unknown diabetics. It is anticipated that next year when the Diabetic Screening Clinic is offered again, more residents will take the time to have the simple blood test to detect asymptomatic diabetes.

Lead Paint Clinics Scheduled

The next lead paint clinic conducted by the health department is scheduled for Wednesday, July 25 from 10 to 11 a.m. at the health department clinic in town hall. There will be a single clinic scheduled in August on the eighth at the same time and place.

Dollar Days Scheduled July 27-28

Andover Center Merchants' Dollar Days, an annual summer clearance event will be marked by special sales features this year. During the Dollar Days, which will be held from 9 a.m. through 9 p.m. on Friday, July 27 and from 9 a.m. through 5:30 p.m. on Saturday, July 28, most center merchants will be giving the best buys on summer items as possible.

Amy W. Bernardin, Center Merchants Chairman, expects that with this feature, this year's Dollar Days will be a prime attraction for area shoppers. Bernardin noted that free parking exists in many conveniently located Main Street and off-Main street lots as well as two-hour free parking along Main Street. She added that there are more than 1000 parking spaces in the immediate downtown area.

ENERGIZE IN ANDOVER!

Some people seem to feel that patriotism is old hat. We don't and feel certain that most of the citizens of Andover feel the way we do. It is obvious to all that our country has a serious energy problem and the fact is underscored by the gasoline situation. Obviously we must conserve and on that score we in Andover have an edge. As a suburban town of means, Andover is replete with recreational facilities, many offered at no cost to us. Nearby are ponds. AVIS has provided the Deer Jump Reservation for woodland walks. We have golf courses and tennis courts. Entertaining sports programs thrive. Pool parties are fun. So the thrift-wise, economy minded can find much to do without travelling afield. The grass isn't really greener in the other fellow's back yard. Stay in Andover and enjoy!

And, when you conclude your local activities renew and restore your energy with a satisfying snack or dinner at Towne Deli. Seated at our outdoor cafe or in the cool of our airy dining room with our carefully prepared fare before you, you'll reflect that "sticking around" Andover can be a great idea after all.

P.S. One of our party platters will make your pool party easier on the host and more fun for all.

At The Playgrounds

Ballardvale

Ballardvale playground started the week off planting flowers last Monday. Tuesday the group went to Sanborn playground for a game of softball. Kelly Conley, Patrick Timmons, Steffie Antanucich and Ryan St. Armand were the star players. Thursday featured a visit to the Budweiser Brewery in Merrimack, N.H. Debbie Prussman, Anne Murnane, and Cindy Townsend were very interested in the whole process. However, Richie Meyers, Cathy Guliani and Ericka were more interested in seeing the Clydesdale Horses. Friday brought a quiet conclusion to a very busy week. Ronny Dadinski, Bartley Parker and Amyu Smith played four square for a good part of the morning. Then Melina Mills and other finished off the day with a great cookout and later painted Coleen Sherry, Cindy Sherry and Heather Taylor's faces like clowns. Kelley Conley was named the best girl clown and Richie Meyers was the best boy clown.

Doherty

Last week Doherty playground had a full schedule of events. The softball team had its first two games versus West and Shawsheen losing both by narrow margins. They are hoping for a comeback against Ballardvale this week. The bike rodeo went over like a cowboy on a bronc. Some of the prizes were rounded up by: best decorated, Kirsten Beigel; most original, Bethany Hughes; most colorful, Mimi Tabasco; most unique, Mark Dreese; and most patriotic, Paula Johnson. The day ended with a relay, and dress-up relay before they headed back to the corale.

Thursday we went for the Gusto with a trip to the Budweiser Plant in Merrimack, N.H. The kids agreed that the most exciting part of the visit was the gift shop.

The week ended with a giant cookout between Doherty and Shawsheen and the consumption of a 39 pound watermelon.

Sanborn

Sanborn started off the second week with an exciting softball practice and gym games such as Kick and Run, and Dodge

Study Course Offered

The Andover-North Andover Y.M.C.A. and Greater Lawrence Y.M.C.A. are offering a course "How to Study in College" to high school graduates. The one week course is scheduled July 30 - Aug. 2, 7-9:30 p.m. and will be held at White Auditorium, Evans Hall, Phillips Academy. Registrations for the program are being accepted on a first come basis at the Andover facility, 165 Haverhill St., or the Lawrence 'Y', 40 Lawrence St. Details are available at either Y.M.C.A.

The ten hour course is designed to improve study skills and help students make effective adjustments to college life. Topics included in the course cover: how people learn and why we forget, the art of listening, taking lecture notes, planning your time, basic study formulas, techniques of review, themes, reports, taking examinations, vocabulary of college, personal problems in adjusting to college, etc.

The course will be taught by a Purdue University professor who has been selected and trained by the authors of the course, Dean R. F. Schwarz and Professor H. D. Murdock of the Purdue University North Central Campus.

Ball. Later in the day we did weaving with gimp.

Tuesday, the kids brought in bottles, which were decorated with yarn, then the rest of the morning was spent working on one project for the Peanut Carnival.

Thursday, 50 from Sanborn went to the Budweiser Brewery in Merrimack, N.H. to learn how they brew beer. For those who stayed back on the playground, we made popsicle stick name tags and played gym games.

Shawsheen

Week number two has ended and, as usual, it was very busy. On Monday there was softball practice with Mike Romano as the coach. While they practiced, others played four-square.

Tuesday we traveled to South for our first softball game of the summer. Everyone played well and Shawsheen was victorious. Bombardment and floor hockey followed the softball game, but ended early because the bus arrived to take us home. Back at Shawsheen, the children made different things using popsicle sticks.

On Friday, Doherty invited us to their playground for a softball game and cookout. We edged out Doherty in softball in a game that was great fun for everyone. The cookout was great including the watermelon which Doherty provided.

South

It was a big hockey week at South as we practiced up for Shawsheen's visit. They were victorious in softball but we conquered in hockey. Unfortunately the bus came in the middle so we couldn't finish the game. Todd Ruckman, Joey Lyons, Curt Solomon were all stars in hockey this week. Everyone is looking forward to some banner making this week, and are also excited about going to Pomp's Pond and the Dairy Bike Ride.

West

West began its second week of playgrounds with much fun and excitement. Monday we made button jars early in the morning and finished up the day with a long practice for our softball team.

Tuesday we celebrated our Country's birthday early with a Red, White and Blue Day. We had a Patriotic Bike decorating contest where everyone decorated their bikes with red, white and blue crepe paper and then paraded around the school yard. All the bikes turned out just great and Leslie Wilkinson was our all around winner. Tuesday Doherty also came for a softball game after which the two playgrounds joined together to participate

Board Gives Approval To Study

The school committee Tuesday night gave its formal nod for the school building committee to proceed with a comprehensive study of school facilities.

The go-ahead allows Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark to ask the state School Building Assistance Bureau to participate in the study by Perley F. Gilbert Associates of Lowell, the architects who have already been involved in the project for the past year.

Clark said the Merrimack Valley Planning Commission has already been retained to undertake a population study, including a projected school population.

This report should be finished within a month, and turned over to the architects.

Meanwhile, the school building group has submitted a list of questions to the school committee regarding their philosophy and the committee will be discussing those questions at 7 o'clock tonight, before they meet jointly with the building committee at 7:30.

School Chairman Elaine Viehmann noted Tuesday night that a school committee has never put its philosophy formally down on paper before.

She said they have until Aug. 15 to develop their educational philosophy, and from then until Nov. 15 to evaluate various alternatives and narrow down to the most viable ones.

She said by Dec. 15 they should have definitive cost attached to the finalists.

School Building Committee Chairman Ken Gropper said they would not be able to go out for bonding until October 1980, if they ended up going with anything other than the present 6-3-3 grade configuration. Preliminary work has already been done on the present system, he said, but anything else would require schematic drawings, design development and construction documents and that would require months to prepare for presentation to the town.

Cultivation of tomatoes (tomato) probably originated in Mexico. All related wild species are native to the Andean region, Massachusetts Audubon says. The first description of tomatoes in the Old World was published in 1554 by the Italian herbalist, Pier Mattioli.

Move Made To Retain School Physician Post

The school physician might be reinstated in Andover.

While the school committee lopped $6,000 for the physician from its budget earlier in the spring, a recent letter from the state indicates that the action has put Andover in non-compliance with state law.

The committee Tuesday night directed Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert to go back and restudy the situation, and make his recommendation at the next school committee meeting.

Seifert had recommended earlier in the year that the physician be retained, and warned them that they could be in non-compliance.

The school committee's original intent was to put the responsibility for physical examinations for sports participation on parental shoulders, because physicals had taken up a large part of the school physician's time in recent years.

Seifert said Tuesday, however, that it was an "oversimplification" to say that the physician just performed physicals. He said they had to look at the immunization program, medical referrals, 766 responsibilities, and the like. He added that there are other areas without appropriate coverage, such as major sports events. He said the schools try to have a trainer and a couple of first aid people on hand at the games, but haven't been able to have a doctor at each major event.

Committeeman Alan Doerr said he considered that a violation of the law also.

Committeeman Joseph Finn asked how many state laws the schools are in violation of, and Seifert replied that he really couldn't say, because there have been so many changes in state laws in the last couple of years.

Finn asked if they wanted the physician "because we want to comply with this law or because we want to be in compliance with all laws."

Seifert said he didn't think the state would come after Andover in this instance. However, he said, if someone were hurt in the schools and there wasn't a school physician, "there might be a problem."

Chairman Elaine Viehmann suggested that they may be able to eliminate the responsibility for physicals, and still have a school physician for other needs.

Vacancy

the March election, but Salter replied that they should have filled it by now. School Committeeman John Eaton was quick to point out that "we do need this fifth person desperately."

As for other qualifications, Selectman Jim Abramson said his board had expressed a preference for someone who has children in the Andover school system, is familiar with computers, and who has lived in town long enough to know the educational issues.

Selectman Susan Poore felt the residency question was one of the "most important," and the boards unofficially settled on a three-year minimum.

School Committeeman Joseph Finn said he felt the situation of having children in the system "cuts both ways." While a parent would know the system better, he said, someone without children in the system would have fewer biases.

School Chairman Elaine Viehmann added that when Milt Meyers served on the board, he had no children in the system and felt he could make decisions easier because of it. That way, Mrs. Viehmann said, people couldn't say that he'd made a certain choice because it involved his child's school or teacher or whatever.

Both committees will now be working up a list of questions to present to all candidates on the 31st.

$1 Billion For Armaments

The world spent $1 billion a day for armaments in 1977, according to the Stockholm International Peace Research Institute. The explosion of only a few nuclear warheads would destroy most of the cities in the Northern Hemisphere in a flash, Massachusetts Audubon says.

Food Waste

Twenty percent of all food produced in the U.S. is lost or wasted each year; 137 million tons valued at $31 billion in 1974, Massachusetts Audubon reports. Food loss occurs during transportation, storage, processing and through carelessness by consumers.

Drug, Budget Policies Are Adopted

The school committee Tuesday night passed a new fiscal policy which paves the way for program budgeting and allows the transfer of funds from one line item to another with school committee approval.

This is the first written policy the committee has ever had on fiscal matters.

It provides that the annual budget will be generated for the time being with line-item detail, with an eventual switchover to program budgeting at the system level. Town Meeting as in the past, will still be asked to approve total salary and expense amounts only. For the town meeting report, the schools will provide past figures and current year estimates on enrollments, total teachers, per pupil costs from the state, actual expenses and budgeted expenses by line.

In other policy action, the committee added more teeth to their policies on the possession, sale or use of alcoholic beverages or drugs.

Students who bring alcoholic beverages onto school property or school-related activities such as dances or field trips, will be immediately expelled, rather than just suspended, and anyone who arrives with evidence that he has consumed an alcoholic beverage will be suspended.

Students who possess, use, sell or transfer drugs on school property or at school functions, will be expelled, with parents and law enforcement officers properly notified.

The policy also provides that all members of the school staff are to cooperate with the police in investigating drug abuse, with the superintendent acting as coordinator and keeping records of drug-related matters in a confidential file.

The policy considers confidentiality "a grave matter," with violation to be dealt with "severely" by the school committee. A student's confidential drug record is to be destroyed a year after the student leaves Andover schools through graduation or any other reason.

At an earlier school session, Committeeman Joseph Finn said he felt students should be put on notice that the committee is not going to tolerate the possession, use or sale of drugs in our schools, and consider each instance to be a serious one."

He also advocated being "very harsh" with the student who would bring liquor onto the school premises.

Tomatoes Valuable

Tomatoes were the most valuable commercial crop (corn second) in 1977: $914.1 million, Massachusetts Audubon reports. Tomato production used 491,080 acres (767 square miles). California produces 76 percent of all tomatoes grown in the U.S.

Merit Award Winners

The Andover department of community services has won an award of merit from the National Sports Foundation, an organization of 50,000 sports store owners. The award is for the quality of leisure services offered to the town by the department, and enables Andover to be further judged for five finalist positions. Shown with award, from left, George Kwiecien, Joan Pearson and Mary Schelling of the community services department.

Marine Life

Marine life has dropped 40 percent over the past 30 years. Jacques Cousteau, marine specialist, advises there should be a world ocean authority to integrate the international use of the seas, and to define rules and standards for conservation and equitable use of marine resources, Massachusetts Audubon points out.

The Gas Bomb

You're driving a bomb if you have gasoline in the trunk of your car, the Institute says. The trunk affords little chance of air circulation and gets hotter than the driving compartment. Escaping vapors can explode without warning when touched off by the electrical system. In the event of a rear end collision, the car and occupants would be a complete write-off.

Ancient Fish

A fish, the coelacanth (up to five feet long), is the oldest known living vertebrate species, 400 million years. The first specimen was caught off the east coast of Africa in 1938, Massachusetts Audubon tells us. It has overlapping scales, bony jaws, sharp teeth, a jointed skull that moves, and fins that rotate in a 180 degree arc. It may be a link between fish and amphibians.

Ruthers Sweep Canadians

By Rick Harrison

The Andover Babe Ruth baseball team swept a pair of games from Canadian youth teams during its ninth annual four-day trip to Montreal recently, belting St. Michel 9-1 and outslugging the strong Salaberry NDG Maroons 9-8.

The two victories marked the fourth time Andover has swept all its games in Canada, and the locals now own a 15-6 overall record against teams from Montreal.

Two additional games were cancelled during the trip, one because of rain and the other when the Lachine Knights qualified for a citywide tournament which conflicted with the scheduled Andover contest.

While in Montreal the Andover group, 23 strong, attended an Expos-Los Angeles Dodgers game, visited "Man and His World" twice, explored the downtown areas of the city, and swam in the beautiful University of Montreal pool several times.

Andover, 9-1

Lefthander Bob Heidt and righthander Fred Foote, the 1-2 power pitching punch for the 13-15 year old Ruth team last summer and now members of Andover's 16-18 Senior Ruth squad, combined to hurl a four-hitter as the locals tamed St. Michel 9-1 at Verlot Park.

Heidt, who also starred for Andover High's tournament qualifiers this past Spring, worked the first three frames and Foote the final four.

St. Michel grabbed a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the first when losing pitcher Steve Lake reached on a dropped third strike, took second on a catcher's interference call, and scored when Sal Monroe lashed a single.

Andover loaded the bases with one out in the second on a double by Foote, a single by Rich Grimm and a walk to Jeff Demers. However Lake, who struck out 11 but permitted 12 hits, worked his way out of the jam with a strikeout and pop fly to shortstop.

The winners broke on top 3-1 in the third, as Glen McIntyre and Ed Powers rapped RBI singles. The third tally crossed on Rich Grimm's infield out.

St. Michel, which failed to mount a serious threat against either Heidt or Foote following the first inning, fell behind 7-1 as Andover erupted to score four times in the fourth.

Singles by Ed O'Connor, Steve Rathbun and McIntyre accounted for one run, Heidt singled home two more, and Ed Powers laced an RBI single.

Rathbun hammered a triple to centerfield in the fifth, but was left stranded as Lake fanned the side.

Andover added a run in the sixth when Ed Powers singled, stole second, and crossed on Grimm's basehit.

The final marker came in the seventh when Lake, who walked eight, issued free passes to Steve Dougal, Andy Emmert, Foote and Mike Gibson to force in the run.

Ed Powers finished the game 3-for-4, McIntyre went 2-for-4, Rathbun stroked two hits and scored twice, and Rich Grimm also had a pair of safeties.

Grimm made a fine shoetop catch in centerfield to rob Lake of a hit, while Matt

Glen McIntyre

Triple, 9 Strikeouts

Wells played a sharp defensive game at second base.

Andover, 9-8

Andover and Salaberry have locked up in several outstanding games in recent years at Loyola Park.

This one was no different, as both teams hit the ball extremely well and battled back from deficits to keep it interesting.

Andover took a 2-0 lead in the first, fell behind 4-2 in the second, built an 8-4 lead in the fourth, and then held on for the win.

Fred Foote pitched the first two innings and Glen McIntyre the last five for Andover. They surrendered 12 hits, but McIntyre struck out nine and didn't walk a batter during his stint.

Salaberry used three pitchers, Brian "Hokey-Dokey" Wong, lefthander Brett Behnam, and Jean Clavel who hurled the final inning and took the loss.

With two down in the Andover first Bob Heidt walked, Foote lashed a single to rightfield, Rich Grimm walked, and Matt Wells grounded a two-run single to centerfield.

Dan Bertoldi tripled and scored on an error in the Salaberry first, as he caused Andover fits all day with a perfect 4-for-4 performance at the plate.

The Maroons struck for three runs in the second, after two were out, as a pair of walks were followed by Bertoldi's RBI single and a two-run single from Jean Bianchini.

A pair of walks to Ed O'Connor and Jeff Demers, along with a wild pitch, put Andover runners in scoring position with two outs in the second. However, Wong bore down to strike out the next batter and end the threat.

The locals regained the lead in the third. Foote singled, Wells walked and Jim MacMillan was hit by a pitch to load the bases. A walk to Andy Emmert forced in a run, and Glen McIntyre belted a three-run triple to left-centerfield to make it 6-4.

In the fourth Jeff Demers led with a walk, and Bob Heidt clouted a long two-run homer to rightfield to jump the Andover advantage to 8-4.

Tom Powers initiated a key doubleplay in the bottom of the fourth to get McIntyre out of a bases-loaded situation.

Behnam stroked a two-run double in the fifth as Salaberry cut the gap to 8-6, and the host team tied it in the sixth when

Dial "M" Brooks Feature

The Theatre at Brooks (TAB) presents Dial "M" for Murder as its second production. A famous murder mystery set in England, which starred Grace Kelley and Ray Milland, bends and twists on who murdered who.

Paul E. Hart, a Lawrence native and now a New York actor appearing in residence all summer at TAB, is portraying Tony, a charming, sophisticated schemer who wishes to murder his socialite wife, played by Nita Froelich. Tom Vittorioso, a recent award winner for "Best Supporting Actor" at the New England Theatre Conference, portrays Max Halliday hired killer — will he succeed in killy Tony's wife?

The rest of the cast includes John Palmer, Richard Seguin and James T.

Spader, all of whom are familiar names to TAB and Greater Merrimack Valley audiences.

Dial "M" for Murder is directed by Richard Seguin. Dick, known to theatre-goers in the Boston, Merrimack Valley and N. H. areas as a fine actor, will thrill the audience as the Director for Dial "M" for Murder.

The play runs July 12, 13, 14 and 19, 20, 21. Free champagne will be served on opening night. Reservations may be made by calling the theatre from 3-9 p.m. The Theatre at Brooks offers a country setting among the rolling hills of Brooks School, Rte. 133, North Andover.

Serge Lebois slammed a one-out RBI triple and crossed on a wild pitch.

Andover notched the deciding run in the top of the seventh on a walk to Billy Vickers, a single by Tom Powers, a walk to Emmert and a throwing error.

Footie was the lone Andover player with more than one hit, as he finished the game 2-for-4.

In addition to Powers' DP, Andover's Jeff Demers also starred defensively by making a nice stab of a hot liner at shortstop.

All-Stars

Three Andover players were unable to make the Montreal trip, but Jason Powell, Jon Pelletier and Tim Grams were all instrumental in leading the Greater-Lawrence League All-Star team to the District I championship finals.

The G-L Stars won the Division I title the hard way, losing their opening game to Melrose (3-1) before scoring successive victories over Stoneham (6-0), Woburn (9-6) and Wakefield twice (3-1 and 5-1).

Burlington, the defending State titlist, ousted Greater-Lawrence from the tourney with a 2-1 triumph in the District finals. Had G-L beaten Burlington twice it would have been in the State Tournament in Somerville.

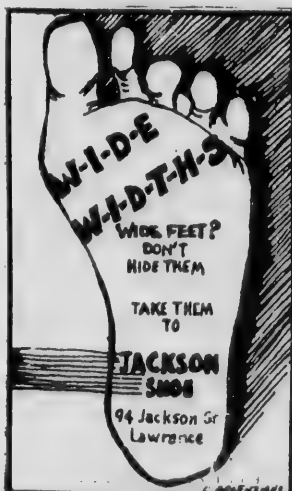

Jake Powell enjoyed a fine all-around tournament for G-L, going 3-for-3 in one game, 2-for-3 in another and driving in several runs.

Pelletier also chipped in several timely hits, and his one-hit, nine-strikeout pitching performance led the locals past Wakefield 3-1.

Tim Grams played steady defensive ball in the outfield.

Meteor Dust

The Earth's surface is nearly 197 million square miles. Daily, one million tons of fine meteoric dust falls onto it, Massachusetts Audubon says.

'Best Buys' For July

Native greens and salad fixings lead off the list of 'best buys' during July.

You'll find Boston, romaine and leaf lettuces from nearby farms at reasonable prices as well as chicory, escarole, cukes, parsley, radishes, scallions, spinach, kale, collard and mustard greens.

Native green, red Chinese and savoy cabbage are also available for summer-time salads and cole slaw, suggests, the state Food and Agriculture Department.

Other good buys in native vegetables include green, pole or wax beans, bunched beets, carrots, peas, new potatoes, Swiss chard, yellow and zucchini squash.

The popular native sweet corn season will begin in late July, with the harvest of juicy, red tomatoes soon to follow.

The local strawberry season is winding down, but homegrown blueberries should arrive by mid-July. Native rhubarb is also a good buy.

Peaches from the deep South and California plums and nectarines are plentiful. At present there are no serious transportation problems, and prices are reasonable.

Other good July fruit buys are cantaloupe, cherries, grapes, limes, honeydew and watermelon. It's also the season to enjoy fresh apricots.

Retail meat prices are expected to gradually decline during the second half of 1979. A USDA study on beef and pork prices this spring noted, however, that retail prices increased even though prices paid to farmers declined.

At the meat counter, shop for the advertised specials in beef chuck steaks and roasts, pork roasts, smoked shoulders and hams.

Egg prices are reasonable, and chicken and turkey will also be good buys as supplies are plentiful.

In fish, best values include native cod, pollock, haddock, mackerel, whiting, bass, monkfish, squid, hake and cusk.

On Dean's List

Anita B. Labell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel R. Labell of Andover, was honored recently by being named to the Dean's List for the past term at Endicott College in Beverly.

Two delegates from the Unitarian Universalist Church of Andover helped set denominational policy for the coming year at the 18th Annual General Assembly of the Unitarian Universalist Association, held on the campus of Michigan State University in East Lansing Michigan, June 26-30.

Unitarian Universalist Church of Andover delegates attending were: Edward Malakoff of 87 Central St., Andover, and David Rickard of 12 Angel Road in North Reading.

David Rickard, in addition to his delegate responsibilities attended the Conference of Presidents of the districts within the UUA. Edward Malakoff, who is active within the Fellowship of Religious Humanists, an affiliate organization to the UUA, attended dinner meetings with the leadership of that group. Also, he attended the two major evening presentations sponsored by the group, the first being a lecture by Joseph Fletcher, Professor Emeritus at the University of Virginia, who spoke on "My Religious Odyssey — Arriving at Humanism." The second was a dramatic portrayal of Robert Ingersoll, the famous orator on agnosticism during the latter part of the 19th century.

Both of the Andover delegates addressed the General Assembly of 1100 delegates, on two different business resolutions.

Vandalism Plaguing Pomp's Pond Program

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

This is an invitation to the people of Andover. We invite you to visit Pomp's Pond. Here, every Monday through Thursday morning this summer, you can observe some of the finest swimming instruction to be given anywhere. The swimmers who receive certification from this program have more than met the required standards.

Many of you already have your children enrolled in the program. You seem to be pleased. Many of you have been participating for a number of years.

But this invitation is extended to all in Andover because this swimming program is working against unfair odds this summer. We invite you to come and observe the results of the vandalism plaguing Pomp's Pond in recent weeks.

Come and see the bobber lines, which define the safe swimming area, cut and washed ashore all over the pond. Come and see your tax dollars lying wrapped around the anchors somewhere on the bottom of the pond. See the docks overturned, lying useless on the shore, their styrofoam floatation torn out and broken to bits. The lack of these docks effectively cuts down the teaching area by 75 per cent.

Come and find the smashed bottles and other broken glass as it litters the beach and shallow water ready for any unsuspecting foot. Come and hear of the stolen bicycles. One belonged to a young volunteer who was assisting with swimming classes.

Come and read our graffiti scrawled on the bathhouse walls. It's an education.

Nearly every morning the staff must spend valuable time cleaning the beach, replacing the lines and doing other things which should only have to be done once, in preparation for the opening of the pond. Because of the diligent work of the staff, Pomp's is a clean, safe, place for instruction and swimming.

The crew from the Department of Community Services has spent two weeks repairing the dock facilities and replacing stolen and destroyed fittings in order to be able to set out the docks for use by instructors and swimmers alike. Many times they came down in the morning to find the previous day's work completely undone.

Situations like this are intolerable. When dedicated people give first rate services, they should not be hampered because of the reprehensible behavior of irresponsible vandals.

A few weeks ago in regard to a particular situation in town, a mother was quoted as saying "...this is Andover. Things like this aren't supposed to happen here..."

Well, things do happen here. It is time this community woke up and "smelled the coffee."

The vandalism which is beginning to run rampant throughout this town can only be stopped with a concerted effort by the authorities and the community.

Marine life has dropped 40 percent over the past 30 years. Timber Harvest Area To Be Open For Viewing

His First Fourth

Relaxed and secure in his stroller, Gregory Wojtkun, four-months old, celebrated his first Fourth of July at Central Park, along with hundreds of other residents and visitors. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wojtkun of 1 Windsor St.

The Conservation Commission has initiated a timber harvesting project on one of the properties under its control and management, Carmel Woods, 20 acres of wooded land between High Street, Carmel Road, Cheever Circle, Shipman Road and Burton Farm Drive.

At the instigation of one of its members, retired forester Daniel Pingree, the Commission sought the advice of Essex County Forester Jack Jackson, as to the feasibility and desirability of a timber harvest on a portion of Carmel Woods. Jackson informed the Commission that other Towns have benefited by selective cutting on conservation land. The project will improve the timber stand by removing crooked trees or trees crowding others, leaving space for the better young trees to mature. The primary objectives are improvement and rejuvenation of the forest, with the incidental benefit of income to the Town.

Forester Jackson, with assistance from Pingree, marked the trees that should be cut to achieve those objectives. Sale of this timber, estimated to be worth more than $3,000, will be to the highest bidding contractor, who will also cut and remove the trees. Actual removal will be under close supervision by Jackson.

Strict guidelines must be met by the timber operator who will sign a contract calling for limitations on equipment to be used (to minimize damages), limitations on placement and height of slash and proximity to existing paths and property lines, time limit, liability insurance requirement, removal of marked trees only, protection of remaining growth and limitations on logging and access roadways. A performance bond is also required.

First showing by Forester Jackson to all potential bidders is scheduled for Friday, July 20 at 8:30 a.m. Bid opening will be Aug. 3. The Town reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids, in whole or in part. Logging must start within 90 days after the contract is signed, and must be completed within 45 days.

Set aside as part of Andover's Town Farm when the original Andover was split into two Towns in 1855, Carmel Woods has been considered for a variety of uses since that time, including a cemetery (1869) an elementary school site, and a site for elderly housing. Town Meeting voted in 1969 to transfer this 20 acres of woods to the custody of the Conservation Commission. Thinning to improve the forest was recommended at that time.

Trees were planted on this site during

The school committee Tuesday night approved 6 percent pay increases for central office personnel, effective July 1.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert will now receive $41,000, and Asst. Supt. Charles Mitsakos, $32,860. Business Manager Edward Maguire's salary will be up to $29,150, including a $2,000, one-time merit bonus in recognition of the monies he has saved the system. Seifert said Maguire has brought in more than $200,000 through special grants and the like.

Transportation assistant Samuel Arcidy will receive $15,211; Food Services Director Richard Barron, $18,020; Plant Engineer Alfred Hart, $21,306 and HVAC Mechanic James Brightney, $18,921.

In other central office action, the committee approved the change of the administrative secretaries to the assistant superintendent and business/personnel manager, to "Confidential Secretaries." As such they will be unclassified, relinquishing membership in the Andover Educational Secretaries Association.

The committee also approved three new positions: girls varsity soccer coach at $700 to $1300 a year, Girls J.V. soccer coach at $600 to $1180 per year, and a teacher of children with moderate special needs. Seifert said the coaching positions were accounted for in the original budget, and were not included in any physical education cuts. The special needs job is contingent upon federal Title VI-B funds.

The committee also accepted the resignation of Gertrude Kefferstan, head nurse in Andover Schools for the past two years. She will return to her former position as school nurse, and Seifert said the central office would be re-evaluating the head nurse position.

Other resignations accepted by the school committee Tuesday night include Ann Bagg, math teacher at East Jr. High; Judith McConkey, instructional aide at Sanborn; Stephanie Nee, duplicating machine operator at Stowe School; Shirley Reardon, media aide at Shawsheen School and Louisa Tropeana, special needs instructional aide at East Jr. High.

Request Improved Bond Rate

An effort to improve the town's bond rating which could save taxpayers up to $1 million on the new school construction issue if approved, was made by Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark this week.

The manager, accompanied by other town officials, banking advisors and bond counsel, met with Moody's Investment Service in New York City on Monday, seeking approval of the town's rating to Triple-A.

Clark said that upgrading of the bond rating would represent a saving of almost $300,000 on the life of $4,360,000 bond issue to be negotiated soon and upwards of $1 million on the school construction bonding anticipated later this year or early next year.

The $4 million-plus bond to be issued would cover recent town meeting actions for improvements to the water distribution system, a capital program to solve the town's storm drainage problems, school building planning funds and repair of the Bancroft school roof.

The manager said the representation by the town before Moody's outlined the response to the investor service question of water rates and development of a capital improvement program.

Bad News, Good News

A little bit of the old bad news-good news bit this week, with the good far outweighing the bad.

It's almost too repetitious to mention under the heading of bad news, the continued wave of vandalism in the community.

Latest target of what apparently are the actions of errant youth is Poms Pond, the town's summer recreation facility.

A letter from the staff to the TOWNSMAN this week, indicated that an almost daily activity of the lifeguards and workers at the pond is to clean up the broken glass from the beach area, replace the safety lines and patrol the pond in search of the floats and raft which have been torn free of their anchors.

Now, we would assume that the Poms staff has much more important things to do than clean up after a nightly caper by town vandals.

First off, they generally turn their attention to providing swimming lessons to hundreds of residents from tots to adults during the morning hours.

But, before they can do that they have to make sure all the safety lines are back in place.

Earlier this year someone rammed a large vehicle into the door of the bath house at the pond, requiring considerable repair. Since that time the walls of the structure have been littered with graffiti, some of the more vulgar messages having been removed by members of the staff scrubbing the painted cinder block walls.

All of this nonsense, of course, is added to the weekly run of mail box damage, lawns being run over, gas being siphoned, among other things.

There are any number of suggestions as to how to curb vandalism, such as, give the youngsters a teen or community center.

Why? Just to give them something else to wreck.

First and foremost we might suggest the assumption of responsibility on the part of parents in knowing where their youngsters are, and what they are doing and who they might be associating with. Also, as a solution to the energy crisis, remove car privileges, thus saving gas. Maybe sticking around the neighborhood and being creative in dreaming up some summer recreation, would be a step in the right direction.

And, for the good news —

Hat's off to the Andover Jaycees for producing another excellent Fourth of July program at the Park and playstead.

There was something for everyone and the crowd this year, probably among the biggest ever to take advantage of good, old-fashioned fun at home on the holiday.

Considerable work, planning and effort went into the program this year as the Jaycees undertook the festivities which gets some financial assistance from the town.

The service organization is to be commended for their fine display of community spirit.

And while on the subject of service organizations, a word of commendation to the Andover Lions Club which is assisting a local young man in obtaining a Harvard education.

The Lions have as their principal service effort, eye research and assisting those who are visually handicapped. Their effort in Andover is to assist a young man who has lost his vision and is desirous of obtaining an education to overcome the handicap.

Such efforts of the Jaycees and the Lions simply prove that these organizations are not soup 'n' sandwich service groups.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — July 1904

A retaining wall, which was recently erected at considerable expense to the town at the corner of Red Spring Road and Cuba Street has recently been destroyed to a great extent by boys.

Last evening nearly 100 members of the Indian Ridge Lodge of Rebekahs and their friends enjoyed a trolley ride to the Pines in Haverhill. The run was made in a special electric car leaving Elm Square at 7 o'clock.

An examination was held on Wednesday for the purpose of appointing an extra letter carrier. Two applicants took the examinations, but as yet the appointment has not been made.

George Baker lost a considerable quantity of cord wood by some mischievous young men setting fire to it on July 4. The wood was valued at many dollars.

Lightening struck and seriously damaged a beautiful shade tree in front of principal Stearn's house on Chapel Avenue last Saturday afternoon.

Miss Mary Myer, of Tyler Rubber Co.'s office, is enjoying a two week vacation visiting friends in Swampscott and Haverhill.

A telephone has been installed in McLawlin's hardware store. the number being 108-2.

50 Years Ago — July 1929

The J. H. Campion Company store in Andover has been sold to James E. Greeley and Co., which has a fish meat market on Essex Street will possession of August 1, moving the stock to their present stand.

Over 150 men and boys of St. Augustine's parish attended the annual outing under the auspices of the Holy Name Society of the parish on Sunday at Crowley's Grove in West Andover. Two baseball games and a long list of games kept the crowd entertained all day.

Building operations in Andover for the first six months of 1929 have fallen slightly behind those of last year according to the permits given out by building inspector Edward Larsen. The number of permits for new construction is 40 compared to 44 last year.

The first special activities planned for the summer playground will be the soap-bubbler contest to be held this evening at 7 o'clock. This is open to children under 11 years of age.

A new blinker has been installed at the junction of Union and North Main Streets by the police department. All traffic coming out of Union Street must stop in the future. A sign to that effect is on the North side of the building.

25 Years Ago — July 1954

The Fourth of July was celebrated here with a three-day carnival on the playstead sponsored by Andover Post 8, American Legion. There was no official observance of the day by the town.

A new record in building construction is indicated for Andover in view of the building activity here in the past five months. For the 12 month period last year, 152 new homes were erected here. The total number this year up to the end of June is 84, 25 more than were issued for the same period last year.

Four new teachers were elected at a special meeting of the school committee Tuesday night at which time preliminary steps were taken in regard to the cupola of Shawsheen School.

Stephen Hughes had an eventful day for himself last week when he pedaled his way to Boston on his bicycle, witnessed a television show, was interviewed by one of the officials and then saw a disc jockey show at a radio station.

A stray horse that went galloping through Andover square about 5 o'clock Wednesday morning, aroused our alert constabulary to immediate pursuit and was captured by Patrolman Bob Deyermund.

10 Years Ago — July 1969

The band stand in Memorial Park is due to be repaired, thanks to volunteer efforts. The roof is badly in need of repair and there is a large hole in the concrete floor.

Andover's 1969 tax rate may be set within the next week, according to Assessor William Russell. He said his department is still working on a few items before taking the figures to the state department of taxation to officially announce the tax levy for the current year.

Two Andover senior Girl Scouts will attend the 22nd Annual Assembly of the World Health Organization, Friday evening at the War Memorial in Boston.

The annual bicycle auction is scheduled for Saturday at 10 a.m. at the police station. The bikes are unclaimed after having been at the station for some time.

Gerald Silverman, newly appointed blood program chairman for the Andover Chapter, American Red Cross, states that the response by Andover residents to the Bloodmobile, Monday, was most gratifying. The operation produced 75 pints of blood.

'Mame' At Salem, N.H. Playhouse

Town and Country Playhouse's next production is the musical comedy 'Mame.' 'Mame' will continue until July 15. Performance times are Wednesday through Saturday at 8:15 p.m. and Sunday at 7 p.m. There is a matinee on Thursday at 2 p.m.

The Town and Country Playhouse is located on Geremonty Drive in Salem, N.H. and is a theatre with perfect viewing from every seat. There is free parking for all and the theatre is just off Route 93 Exit 1, Rockingham Park Blvd. or Route 28. The box office is open daily except Monday from 10 to 10. Telephone for reservations. Group rates are available as well as reduced prices (except Saturday) for children, senior citizens with Medicare card, and full time students.

JACK ANDERSON WITH JOE SPEAR WEEKLY SPECIAL

Studies Show Arab Oil Shieks Plan to Continue High Prices

WASHINGTON — Some government strategists believe the Middle East is turning into a powder keg that could ignite World War III. Their studies have been conducted in the strictest secrecy. But the American people are entitled to know what these experts foresee.

They expect the Arab oil shieks to continue demanding higher prices and political concessions for their oil. It is possible, even probable, that the militant Arabs might succeed in their efforts to shut off oil shipments to the United States. They want to withhold oil from the United States as long as we are providing oil to Israel.

A prolonged Arab oil boycott, of course, would cripple the United States. We would be forced to take action. Contingency plans have been discussed in the secret policy councils. One calls for the United States to support an Egyptian invasion of Libya's oil fields. Another calls for a joint Israeli-Egyptian operation to take over the oil fields of Kuwait or Saudi Arabia.

We should stress these are contingency plans. They may never be implemented. But military action in the Middle East, if it should come, leads to a somber question: Would the Soviet Union intervene?

The Soviets have been put on notice that the United States is dependent upon Persian Gulf oil and, therefore, has a "vital interest" in the area. This is diplomatic talk which means we would go to war to protect our interests there.

The presumption is that the Soviet Union, which doesn't need Arab oil, would not risk World War III to keep us out of the Arab oil fields. But this may not be the case.

We have seen secret documents which warn that the Soviets may not have enough oil to continue supplying their own needs. Within the next decade, they may become dependent, too, on Arab oil. "Major oilfields in the Urals-Volga region are being depleted faster than anticipated," states one secret report. Thus, it is predicted, the Soviet bloc may be importing 3.5 million to 4.5 million barrels a day by 1985.

This could lead to an eventual Soviet-American confrontation over Arab oil.

Imperial Secretary: Richard Nixon tried to establish an imperial presidency. He brought pomp and theater to the White House. He tried to project a majestic presence, to portray his presidency as a series of triumphal processions.

He was not convincing as a grand figure. His unfortunate sloping nose, dark jowls and marionette gestures just didn't go with the majestic trappings. Once, he tried to dress his White House guards in imperial uniforms, complete with crowned hats. But this provoked such uproarious laughter that he hastily packed up the fancy duds.

Jimmy Carter, in contrast, brought an open-collared, feet-on-the-desk informality to the White House. He has also tried to replace Nixon's extravagance with an emphasis on economy. But Carter has never been able to get the message across to his Health, Education and Welfare Secretary, Joseph Califano.

No one in the administration works harder than Califano. He can often be found in his office at nights and on weekends. He usually puts in 12 to 16 hours a day.

But Califano prefers the Nixon-style trappings. He administers to the poor in rich fashion. Not long after he took office, he hired a top-paid "personal assistant" to cook his lunch. Last year, Califano's chauffeur earned $37,400 — $23,000 of it in overtime pay for driving Califano around at odd hours.

Our high-living welfare czar also hauls along as many as six bodyguards when he travels out of town. He keeps one plainclothes man on guard outside his office whenever he is inside.

And in there, Califano found it uncomfortably warm at nights, after the air-conditioning had been turned off. So he spent $100,000 of the public's money to install a mammoth air-conditioning system in his office suite. That is in addition to the central air-conditioning, which was already cooling the building.

Salt Confusion: The debate over SALT is bound to be confusing; after all, not even the people in charge can decide what the acronym SALT stands for. According to the White House, SALT means Strategic Arms Limitation "talks." But the State Department insists that the "t" in SALT stands for "treaty."

They have apparently resolved the question by agreeing to disagree. In the official State Department-White House brochure explaining the treaty provisions, the meaning of SALT is never spelled out.

Headlines and Footnotes: The Federal Aviation Administration is trying to decide whether blind passengers should be allowed to keep their canes while in flight. The controversy erupted last year when a pilot refused to take off until 15 blind passengers surrendered their walking sticks ... According to the secret minutes of a recent Cabinet meeting, President Carter asked Energy Secretary James Schlesinger whether recent news reports of experimental diesel engines getting 84 miles per gallon were true. Schlesinger replied that all he knew about the engines was what he had read in the papers.

TOWNSMAN Sports

Championship Game

Pirates 7, Red Sox 3

The Pirates scored six runs in the second inning to make it easy for winning pitcher Geoff Edmonds, who helped himself at the plate with two base hits. Edmonds started the big second inning with a triple and scored when Rory Kallfelz' bunt was misplayed. Sean Noone sacrificed Kallfelz to third and he scored as Mark Haddad grounded out. Chuck Burnett then delivered a long home run to account for the third run of the inning. A hit batsman, a single by Marty Vaghmoorian and a base on balls loaded the bases before pinch runner Charley Ziegenbein scored on a wild pitch. Pete Rockicki followed with a single to drive in the fifth and sixth runs. Chris Cots paced the Red Sox with a double and scored two runs. Tim Bolduc took the loss.

Andover BobCats 8 Saugus Express 0

With one of their teammates in hospital (Stephen Hulse) the BobCats were determined to win the victory points for him. In the final week of the American Major League the Orioles finally overtook the Tigers as the Tigers lost two heart-breakers. First the Yankees scored 5 runs in the bottom of the sixth inning to beat the Tigers.

Then in a head-to-head battle for the second half championship, the Orioles beat the tigers in the seventh inning on Tom Marjerison's single through the middle.

This final game pitted two of the leading American League pitchers (Billy Wideman for the Tigers and Jason Reeder for the Orioles) and both pitched exceptionally well. The Orioles scored 3-runs in the first two innings and Wideman shut the door through the rest of the six innings that he could pitch. Reeder, who could only pitch three innings, was relieved by Brian Finnerty who pitched 4 innings and picked the victory.

The win earned the Orioles a tie in the 3-way play-off for first place in the first half of the season. Thus the Tigers faced the Red Sox in the first of several scheduled play-off games. Wideman once again drew the starting pitching assignment for the Tigers and managed to shut-out the Sox 5-0. Wideman homered to lead Tiger hitters. The final second half standings are as follows:

	W-L
Orioles	8-1
Tigers	7-2
Indians	6-2
Yankees	5-4
White Sox	3-6
Red Sox	2-7
Twins	1-8

Orioles 9, Twins 8

The Twins and Orioles hooked up in a see-saw battle with the Orioles finally managing to stop a bottom of the sixth rally after the Twins had scored 4 runs. David Curtis, the winning pitcher, had relief help from Jason Reeder.

The Orioles had seven hits and the Twins had six as both teams hit well enough to continually mount scoring threats. Curtis had a triple and a single; Tom Marjerison and Allen Reeder both doubled. For the Indians Bill Lane doubled twice and Walter Radulski, doubled and singled. Briants Gaudet had 2 RBI'S for the twins.

Yankees 7, White Sox 2

Yankee pitcher Paul Lambers turned in one of the best pitching performances of the year as he held the White to 3 hits and consecutively retired 12 of the last 13 batters. Lambers also had 2 doubles and 2 RBI'S.

For the Yankees, John Veilleux doubled and drove in 2 runs; Dave Doucette also had two hits. Peter Quintal, David Workman, and Dino Martone had the Sox hits. The Yankees turned the rare short-to-first-to-home double play (Veilleux to Conlon to Gibson).

Indians 9, Orioles 4

The Indians continued their terrific second half play as they defeated the Orioles.

The Indians were outthit but good fielding and clutch pitching held the Orioles to only 4 runs. Paul Sheedy was the winning pitcher and Dave Nelson picked up the save. Robbie Barnard led the Indian hitters with a triple while Jim Daly and Nelson each had two hits. Joe DeQuattro and David Curtis doubled and Jason Reeder had 2 hits for the Orioles.

Yankees 10, Red Sox 9

The Yankees managed a few clutch hits and a bottom of the sixth inning, sacrifice fly by John Veilleux to nip the Sox. The Sox outthit the Yankees 12 to 6, but could not pull out the win.

Leading the Sox hitters was Jim Kochakian with a single, triple and homer; Billy Dutton tripled; Mike and Eddie Melia each had 2 hits.

For the Yanks, Paul Lambers had a double and 2 singles; Dave Doucette had a double and a single.

Orioles 9, Yankees 4

Oriole pitching held the Yanks to just 2 hits behind winning pitcher Brian Finnerty and nine-year old relievers Chris Concemi and Allen Reeder.

Oriole hitters were Mark Paskowsky with a double, Tom Marjerison with 2 doubles and 4 RBI'S, and Allen Reeder with a triple.

Dave Klinger and Paul Lambers picked up the 2 Yankee hits. Oriole Paul Gilmar-tin caught for 3 innings for the first time ever and did a great job.

Indians 17, Twins 11

The Indians and Twins blasted each other as they both scored in every inning. Each team had 15 hits. Indian pitchers were Billy Earnshaw, John Morrow (both of whom pitched for the first time ever) and Jeff Smith. Twin pitchers were Scott Bertetti, Walter Radulski, George Heseltine, and Billy Lane.

For the Twins, Billy Lane and Briants Gaudet each doubled and singled twice; Walter Radulski and Stephen Rikeman doubled; Roger Fisk, Mike Boush and Scott Bertetti; each had two hits.

Leading Indian hitters were Bobby Pothier with a double and 2 singles and Gary Bachinsky and Paul Sheedy with 3 singles each, Jim Daly; Dave Nelson and Dave McDonough each had 2 singles.

Marjerison, Reeder Pace LL Titlists

By Rick Harrison

The clutch hitting of Tom Marjerison and the steady hurling of Jason Reeder carried the American League Orioles to an exciting best-of-3 series victory over the National League Cardinals in the annual Andover Major Little League Town Championship last weekend at the West Elementary Field.

The showdown set between the rival league titlists went the full three-game route before the Orioles were able to claim the crown.

The O's captured the opening game 5-4 in nine innings, the defending Town champion Cards chalked up a convincing 21-7 triumph to square the series, and the Orioles erupted for three runs in the sixth inning of the deciding game enroute to a tense 6-3 victory.

The Orioles, who finished the season with an overall 17-5 record, had tied for first place during the opening half of the campaign before capturing the second half outright.

The Tigers and Red Sox, who were the other teams in the first-half AL deadlock, squared off in a single-game playoff semifinal won by the Bengals 5-0 behind big Bill Weidman's three hitter.

That set up a one-game playoff between the Tigers and Orioles for the AL pennant, a contest won 4-3 by the O's who erased a 3-1 deficit by scoring two runs in the fifth and one more in the sixth frame.

The Cardinals took an easier route to the Town Championship series, capturing both the first and second half NL titles with identical 8-1 records.

The Cards, perennial National champs who finished at 17-4 overall, received four no-hitters from their pitching staff and scored over 20 runs in several games.

Orioles, 5-4 (9 inns.)

Tom Marjerison, who lashed the game-winning hit or scored the deciding run in four of the Orioles' final five games down the crucial stretch, singled home Bob Stabile in the top of the ninth as the O's grabbed a 1-0 lead in the series.

Stabile had reached first on a walk and moved into scoring position after a wild pitch, setting the stage for Marjerison.

Mark Pascowsky was the winning pitcher in relief, hurling four strong innings after Brian Finnerty had worked the first five frames.

The Cards used four pitchers including Mark Grams, John Geiger and Rob Carpentier.

The Cardinals outit the Orioles, 12-7, but it wasn't enough.

The Orioles broke out to a 4-0 lead in the second, with the key blow a bases-loaded triple by Pascowsky.

The Cards chipped away for single runs in the third and fourth, and tied the game when Mike Surette hammered a clutch two-run double in the bottom of the sixth to force extra innings.

The teams traded goose-eggs in the seventh and eighth.

Jason Reeder enjoyed a big game for the O's drilling three doubles and scoring a run.

Mark Grams laced two singles, Mike

Surette a pair of doubles, and John Geiger contributed a double and two singles for the Cards.

Defensive standouts were Geiger at shortstop and Orioles's third baseman Bob Stabile.

Cards, 21-7

The Cardinals struck back with a vengeance to knot the series at 1-1, pouring across 11 runs in the top of the first and constructing an insurmountable 18-0 lead in the third before coasting home.

The Orioles netted two runs in the home half of the third and five more in the fourth, but the Cards countered with their final three markers in the sixth.

In addition to 11 hits, the winners received 14 walks and were the beneficiaries of eight Oriole errors.

Rob Carpentier worked the first four innings to secure the pitching win for the Cards. Cormier finished up, and the pair combined to toss a five-hitter, walking four and whiffing six.

Dave Curtis, the first of three O's chuckers, took the loss.

John Geiger once again led the attack with three safeties, including a triple, while Scott Deery and Mike Surette rapped two singles apiece.

Tom Marjerison drove in five runs with a pair of doubles for the Orioles. Brian Finnerty chipped in a two-bagger and single, while Jeff Kennedy lashed a single.

Orioles, 6-3

Righthander Jason Reeder hiked his personal record to 5-0 with a brilliant pitching performance in the decisive third game.

The Orioles' ace permitted five hits, struck out eight and walked only one.

The Cards' mound tandem of Mark Grams and John Geiger combined for a seven-hitter, fanning seven and walking six.

The NL champs drew first blood with a run in the bottom of the first inning, but the Orioles fought back with two in the second. The Cards tied it in the third and gained a 3-2 advantage with a single run in the fourth.

The AL kings pulled even at 3-3 in the fifth as Mark Pascowsky, Tom Marjerison, Jason Reeder and Brian Finnerty

Le Car vs. La Competition

Americans are discovering what 1½ million Europeans already know. When it comes to performance, economy, comfort and engineering, Le Car is in a class by itself.

About the only thing Le Car has in common with little cars is its size.

Only Le Car comes with front-wheel drive, rack and pinion steering, Michelin steel-belted radials, all standard.

The result is the kind of incredible handling and maneuverability that helped Le Car take first in its class in 12 out of 16 races last year.

The inside story of Le Car's success: comfort.

Our engineers designed a wheel-base that is even longer than some big cars. So Le Car's ride is amazingly smooth even on rough roads.

Le Car's interior is surprisingly roomy and very comfortable. To add to the fun, Le Car offers an optional gigantic sunroof. The others have nothing like it.

Test drive Le Car and you'll find out why it's Le Car Hot.

By DOUGLAS N. HOWE
REALTOR.

MOMENT OF TRUTH

The situation is this. Husband is transferred to a new job a great distance away. The family decided to sell their home. If it is not sold prior to the husband's departure, should the wife and children remain behind or accompany him to the new location and try to sell an empty house?

Speaking as a REALTOR — not a marriage counselor — I must advise that the choice will be a matter of finance versus emotions. Why?

Experience shows that an empty house is tougher to sell and brings less money. A house devoid of furniture loses its charm and appearance of livability. Scars and blemishes show up. Empty rooms look smaller without furniture.

On the average, an empty house will bring about 5 to 6 percent less. In some cases, discounts of up to 10 percent are not unusual. Also, selling time is longer for an empty house despite the paradox that the buyer can move in almost immediately.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

After August 1st, things won't be the same.

In the past 3 years, more than 125 people have purchased quality condominium homes at The Tower at Ferncroft in Danvers. At prices which have been as much as 50% less than comparable properties in Boston. You have until August 1 to join them, before prices on remaining units increase.

Living at Ferncroft means appreciating the quality of imported marble foyers, designer kitchens and spacious living area. It means service like 24-hour attendant personnel, electronic security, garage parking and established management. It means enjoying outdoor swimming in a heated pool, exercise rooms and saunas. It means a chance for golf on the adjoining Robert Trent Jones course; magnificent views of the New England countryside; North Shore beaches; convenient shopping and entertainment. And, Boston, only 20 minutes away.

Until August 1, two-bedroom homes at Ferncroft are available from the low $70's. Less than 50 units remain, so the time to reserve is now. Call 599-3280 or 774-4317 for an appointment. Hours are 10-6; Sundays, 12-6. From Boston, take I-95 North to the Topsfield Exit and follow the signs to Ferncroft Drive.

The Tower at Ferncroft. Professionally managed and marketed by Niles Company. Stop by while things are still the same!

It's Your Type of Life.

Timber

the depression years as one of Franklin Roosevelt's public work relief projects. The current undertaking reflects the growing public concern for environmental improvement and for wise management of natural resources.

Also under consideration is a similar timber harvest on another heavily-wooded property owned by the town, the so-called "Tea Lots" on Woburn Street near the South School.

Bond Rate

As for the water rates, Clark explained to officials that the town has adopted a 70-30 ratio of funding the water department based on the town's policy of recognizing that users should not be responsible for the entire underwriting of the agency.

Selectmen have adopted a policy of having the water department costs funded through 70 percent user fees, with the remaining costs paid through general taxation.

Clark explained that this policy recognizes that the water system has to be oversize in order to meet growth and also to accommodate industry. Also, the system must be built to provide fire protection, these provisions being met through 30 percent tax funds.

The capital improvement program was developed by the town in 1977 and has been modified since, along with some updating.

Clark said the investor rating people were informed of the town's historical development of a capital improvement program over a period of many years. There have been no hidden exposures requiring major funding, he noted.

As for future needs, Clark pointed to the town's participation in the Greater Lawrence Sanitary District and the operation of its own water treatment plant as meeting utility needs for many years.

There is no immediate need for municipal building replacement, with the exception of schools, the manager outlined, adding that the town is currently reviewing its school building program with an eye toward cost effectively meeting the needs of the future.

Also cited was the remarkable growth in the town's tax base in the past two years with new industrial development, the manager enumerating the new firms which have initiated construction or already in operation here.

Reorganization of municipal government for more efficient operation this past year was also outlined, including the creation of a department of finance and budget to better oversee the town's financial operations. Acquisition of new data processing equipment and retaining a private auditing firm to examine the town's accounts was also pointed out to the officials to emphasize the town's concern with proper financial management.

Other factors presented included the town's paying off the current $12 million indebtedness over the next ten years, a tax rate competitive within the area and lower than other Massachusetts towns and cities which currently enjoy Aaa rating.

Accompanying the manager were Treasurer-Collector Myron H. Muise, Finance and Budget Director Anthony Torrisi, Jack Begley, New England Merchants Bank representative and Atty. Henry Hall, of Ropes and Gray the town's bond counsel.

The U.S.S. Constitution, the oldest commissioned war ship in the world that's afloat today, is open for visitors daily, 9:30 to 3:30, at the Charelstown Navy Yard. Free.
